Binod Chaudhary is a businessman and philanthropist from Nepal. All I wanted to do was make the Chaudhary Group the first Nepalese multinational. His grandfather is called "Bhuramal Das Chaudhary", emigrated to Nepal from Rajasthan, India, in the 19th century. He is also the only Forbes billionaire in the Himalayan nation, with a net worth of $1.16 billion (as of April 20, 2016). "This is one of the things about people like me", she says. The result is a candid portrait of a businessman unwilling to accept a "no" answer. Nothing, perhaps, and the story of ChaudharyÄçÄ!'s collaboration with Prince Dhirendra, brother of the former King of Nepal, Birendra Bir Bikram Shah. In the early 1980s, Chaudhary made a pact with Prince Dhirendra to counter political hostilities in parts of the Royal Palace. In the capital Santiago, Nepalese entrepreneur Binod Chaudhary and his wife Sarika found themselves trapped in their hotel. Writing the book was the hardest decision because during the writing of the book, most of the people I had to deal with were living in 2008. In 2022, he is the richest and the only billionaire in Nepal to have been successfully recognized by Forbes. Chaudhary was born on April 14, 1955 to a business family in Kathmandu. "When I decided to write this book, I also decided I wouldn't manipulate it", she says. Click here for details.
